

Invitation to the Opera:

Fire Shut Up in My Bones

An adaptation of Charles M. Blow's harrowing memoir, Fire Shut Up in My Bones is the second opera from six-time Grammy Award-winner Terence Blanchard and follows the young Charles as he navigates adolescence and struggles to overcome a life of trauma.

Music Director	Yannick Nézet-Séguin.
Baritone	Will Liverman as Charles.
Soprano	Latonia Moore as his mother, Billie.
Soprano	Angel Blue, who portrays the forces of Destiny and Loneliness, as well as Charles's college sweetheart, Greta.
Adolescent	Walter Russell III as Charles's childhood self, Char'es-Baby.

This recording, part of the Met Live in HD series, will be presented on the large screen in the Meeting Room. Run Time: 2 hrs 52 min

Register at our website under "Programs," or at the Reference Desk.

Wed., September 28th, 1:00 - 4:30 P.M.

MATTITUCK - LAUREL LIBRARY