"Things I Love to Paint" — The Art of Diane Alec Smith

A native of Cutchogue, Diane Alec Smith has been a professional painter and art teacher on the North Fork for nearly 40 years. She currently teaches painting classes out of her studio in Cutchogue. Her artwork, often featuring local landscapes, seascapes and wildlife has been showcased on the cover of Dan's Papers multiple times. ### DECEMBER 2025:

"IMAGINATION" — ARTWORKS BY DONALD GARSIDE

My work is purely fanciful! Any landscape, portrait or still life comes solely from my imagination. I get an idea in my head and I merely transfer it to canvas or paper. Once, a fellow artist asked me what my "process" was. I replied that I didn't have one. The colors I use are mostly out of the tube (acrylic), sometimes lightened with white. I don't title my work, as I want the viewer to title them on their own. That's all folks! – Don

Friends of the Mattituck-Laurel Library

Friends of the Mattituck-Laurel Free Library is a dedicated supporter of your community library. The group raises funds through a yearly membership drive and continuous book sales.
